

GREEN ENJOINED!

He Cannot Deliver the Registration Books to the Managers of Election.

A STRONGER CASE.

Judge Goff Will Pass Upon the Registration Law Again.

CHARLESTON, July 25.—Judge Goff has enjoined Supervisor Green, of Richland on complaint of J. H. Goff, colored. Goff claims the right to vote in a lengthy paper. He is represented by O'bear & Douglass, of Washington. The order is as follows:

"It is ordered that the defendant, W. Briggs Green, do show cause before me on Monday, August 5, 1895, in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals room at Richmond, Va., at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, why an order should not be made in this cause enjoining and restraining him from further exercising the powers and privileges claimed to be conferred by certain alleged acts of the State of South Carolina upon him as the incumbent of an alleged office known and described in said alleged enactment as 'supervisor of registration,' and also from furnishing and delivering to the several boards of managers for the several precincts in Richland County, South Carolina, appointed to hold the election of delegates to certain Constitutional convention soon to be held in the said State, certain paper writings purporting to be the registration books for the several said precincts, and also from doing any and every other act complained of in the said bill.

"It is further ordered that until the hearing hereinbefore directed, the said defendant, his agents, servants and employees be enjoined and restrained from furnishing and delivering to the several boards of managers for the several precincts in Richland County aforesaid, any books or paper writings purporting to be said registration books.

"Let a copy of this order be forthwith served upon said defendant, this 22d day of July, 1895.
(Signed) "NATHAN GOFF,
"U. S. Circuit Judge, 4th Circuit."

It seems, from a perusal of the bill in this case, which was seen in the office of O'bear & Douglass, here, that it differs in some essential particulars from the Mills case, recently decided in the Circuit Court of Appeals. The Mills case was brought in behalf of himself and all others like situated against W. W. Briggs Green, in his official capacity as supervisor of registration, while the new case is a suit against Mr. Green individually, and it seems that he is not sued as supervisor. Upon the contrary, it is positively alleged in the bill that the sections of the registration law which create the office are themselves, together with all the balance of the act, unconstitutional, and that there exists in the State no such office as supervisor of registration. And it is claimed as a legal consequence that the acts and regulations under which Mr. Green, the supervisor has been acting are his own individual acts. Another essential difference is that it is in so many words alleged that the complainant was distinctly refused registration. Also, it is stated in the bill, that he is a citizen of African descent. The peculiar hardships of the act of 1894 requiring the supporting affidavits are made clear by the facts surrounding the particular case of the party suing. And that act is specially attacked as in violation of the fourteenth amendment as guaranteeing to every citizen the equal protection of the law, it being claimed that under the act of 1894 impossible and impracticable conditions to register are imposed upon the voters unregistered at the time of the passage of that act, which are not required and imposed upon those electors now upon the registration books.

The particulars in which the registration laws are in violation of the fifteenth amendment to the United States Constitution are set forth fully and in detail. It is also affirmatively stated in the bill that the complainant has under the facts of his case no remedy at law at all. Among other things, that a judgment at law for damages against the defendant could not be collected, and that even if collected would not be adequate relief to him for the deprivation of his right to vote. The other legal remedies heretofore suggested in the Mills case are disposed of under the facts of the new case, and it is clearly alleged that the complainant can have no legal recourse to any of the suggested remedies.

The bill in addition to a number of other differences between it and the Mills bill seems to be without any of the technical objections raised by the council for the State in the former case. The document in question is a very full and carefully prepared and elaborate legal paper, but its length is such that it cannot be here given in full. Hence the above synopsis. It is inferred that the purpose of the counsel is to differentiate the new case from the old so as to obtain an injunction in the new case without conflicting with the principles laid down by the Circuit Court of Appeals in the Mills case. What the result of this fight will be of course no one can tell. This much, however, seems to be certain, namely: That it presents the issues upon the merits clearly and squarely and absolutely freed from any of the technical points upon which the counsel for the State sought to side-track the former case, and that when this case reaches the United States Supreme Court it will be difficult to dodge the momentous issues made.

It seems that Mr. O'bear, of the firm of O'bear & Douglass, appeared before Judge Goff a few days ago and obtained the rule to show cause elsewhere referred to. The hearing has been set for the 5th of August, 3 p. m., in the court room of the Circuit Court of Appeals at Richmond, at which time it is expected that the arguments on the case will take place. It is not known as yet who will take part in the argument. Probably Mr. H. N. O'bear will make the argument for the complainant.

A Train Held Up.

Six Mounted Robbers Do Their Work Expeditionally—The Confederates.

TOLEDO, O., July 24.—Train No. 37, the westbound Chicago express on the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad, was held up by six masked men at 12:30 this morning at a lonely place in the woods known as Reese Siding, between Archibald and Striker, Ohio, about ten miles west of Wauseon. The train stops there to let the eastern express pass. The latter train was approaching when the robbery took place. The robbers were mounted and rode out of the woods, which are dense and close to the track. Conductor Darling, who was standing near one of the coaches, was ordered inside at the point of a revolver. Admission to the express car was obtained by the same means, and the messenger was forced to open the safe. The robbers were evidently entirely familiar with the train and it is thought that employees of the railroad company or the express company must be implicated, either as principals or as confederates. It was undoubtedly known to the bandits that an unusually large sum was in the express safe last night.

The amount reported to have been obtained by them is said to be $3,000, but it is believed that a much larger sum was taken. No attempt was made to molest the passengers, many of whom knew nothing of the occurrence. When the thieves had secured the contents of the safe they rode quietly away.

Broke Into the Jail.

NEW ORLEANS, July 25.—A Meridian, Miss., special to the Daily States says that Tom Johnson, the negro who murdered Mrs. Hatfield and her daughter and raped another daughter at Hattiesburg, was captured yesterday at Ellisville and carried to Hattiesburg and placed in jail. Last night a crowd of citizens went to the jail and demanded the prisoner and on being refused by the sheriff, demolished the wall and broke open seven locks to reach the negro's cell. When the mob arrived at his door, Johnson showed fight, having secured a crowbar and had to be shot several times before the mob could get hold of him. He was carried out to the scene of the crime, fourteen miles from Hattiesburg for identification, and if he proves to be the right party it is certain that he will be lynched. There is talk of burning him at the stake.

Last June Dick Crawford brought his twelve-months-old child, suffering from infantile diarrhoea, to me. It had been weaned at four months old and had always been sickly. I gave it the usual treatment in such cases but without benefit. The child kept growing thinner until it weighed but little more than when born, or perhaps ten pounds. I then started the father to giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Before one bottle of the 25 cent size had been used a marked improvement was seen and its continued use cured the child. Its weakness and puny constitution disappeared and its father and myself believe the child's life was saved by this Remedy. J. T. Marlow, M.D., Tamaroa, Ill. For sale by Dr. A. J. China.

SUDDEN DEATH IN SPARTANBURG.

SPARTANBURG, July 26.—Mrs. Perry Burnett died suddenly this morning. Her husband about sunrise called her to get up. When she made no reply he examined closely and found her dead. A physician was called in, who said she had been dead two or three hours. Heart failure was the cause.

BEFORE I could get relief from a most horrible blood disease, I had spent hundreds of dollars TRYING various remedies and physicians, none of which did me any good. My finger nails came off, and my hair came out, leaving me perfectly bald. I then went to

Harper's Weekly

IN 1895.

HARPER'S WEEKLY is a pictorial history of the times. It presents every important event promptly, accurately, and exhaustively in illustration and descriptive text of the highest order.

The manner in which, during 1894, it has treated the Chicago Railway Strikes and the China-Japanese War, and the amount of light it was able to throw on Korea the instant attention was directed to that little-known country, are examples of its almost boundless resources. Julian Ralph, the distinguished writer and correspondent, has been sent to the seat of war, and there joined by C. D. Weldon, the well-known American artist, now for many years resident in Japan; who has been engaged to co-operate with Mr. Ralph in sending to HARPER'S WEEKLY exclusive information and illustration.

During 1895 every vital question will be discussed with vigor and without prejudice in the editorial columns, and also in special articles by the highest authorities in each department. Portraits of the men and women who are making history, and powerful and caustic political cartoons, will continue to be characteristic features. This Busy World, with its keen and kindly comment on the lesser doings of the day, will remain a regular department.

Fiction. There will be two powerful serials, both handsomely illustrated—The Red Cockade, a stirring romance of olden days by Stanley J. Weyman, and a novel of New York, entitled The Son of His Father, by Brander Matthews—several novelettes, and many short stories by popular writers.

SEND FOR ILLUSTRATED PROSPECTUS.

The Volumes of the Weekly begin with the first Number for January of each year. When no time is mentioned, subscriptions will begin with the Number current at time of receipt of Order.

Cloth Cases for each volume, suitable for binding, will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of $1.00 each. Title page and Index sent on application.

Remittances should be made by Post Office Money Order or Draft, to avoid chance of loss.

Where Are You Going This Summer?

To The Most Beautiful Spot on Earth.

CHIMNEY ROCK, N. C.

WHY? Because it is not only the most beautiful spot on earth with its grand water falls, pretty little glens, towering mountains and magnificent views, but it is the most pleasant place in the mountains.

It is away from the bustle and noise of railroads, and is, therefore, the best place to gain health and see real pleasure.

How do you get there from Atlanta, Ga., Norfolk, Va., Wilmington, N. C., or intermediate points? Parties going to Chimney Rock take the Seaboard Air Line Trains, which are the best equipped of any line of Road in the South. The Seaboard Air Line carries Chimney Rock visitors to Rutherfordton, from which point a connecting line of stages carries them over a splendid mountain road, through valleys, and by a beautiful river with its ever changing scenery.

What Hotel Shall I Stop At?

By all means stop at the Mountain View Inn, conducted by Mr. George P. Horton and his estimable wife. The hotel is new, the furniture and fittings of the best, and the surroundings well kept. From the hotel is a grand view of the most wonderful waterfalls in the United States, the famous Chimney Rock towering hundreds of feet into space.

Mrs. Horton is an estimable lady, making every one feel at home as soon as they arrive. She gives her personal attention to her house-work, and superintends the cooking department, which insures the most perfect cleanliness. The kitchen is kept as clean and neat as the parlor under her management. Mr. Horton is a hustler and believes in having everything fixed to please his guests. He has lawn tennis and croquet grounds, quoit pitching grounds, a marble yard, [that is, a yard nicely graded, where the boys, men and ladies can play the old, but ever new games of marble, "roll-hole, knuckle down, &c."] He has swings, jogging boards, turning boards, and many amusements for the children. He has rustic seats over the beautiful grounds. Nowhere else can visitors find a place where they can get the comforts and pleasures that they do at Mr Horton's hotel.

But Is Not The Price Too High?

No! It is really a puzzle to the visitors how Mr. Horton furnishes the excellent fare and the amusements to visitors that he does for the small charges. Some of his visitors have insisted on paying him more, and this is the reverse of most cases, for it is usual to have visitors growl at high rates. He only charges seven dollars per week, or twenty-four dollars for a full calendar month.

This is valuable information to me, and a number of my friends who are going to take a vacation this summer, and I am certainly under obligations to you, and will see you during July and August at Mr. Horton's. By the way, how far is it from Asheville?

Only twenty miles. A three hour's drive with a good span of horses will take you to or from the beautiful mountain city, and to Vanderbilt's elegant summer home. In fact it is said that Vanderbilt is going to have a cottage built at a point near Chimney Rock. As to all these points you can write Mr. George P. Horton, Chimney Rock, N. C.

By-the-way, a party of prominent editors visited the place and selected the location as the best place to build an Editorial Club House, and they wrote many words of praise concerning the place and section. I will quote from the following papers:

RALEIGH NEWS AND OBSERVER.

"Here with lofty mountains on each side the most picturesque scenery east of the Rockies, we, a party of editors, have met to see for ourselves and tell the world something of the real grandeur and sublimity. * * It is a revelation and yet how many are willing to live and die without putting forth our effort to view this wondrous scenery. * * The view from the dome of Chimney Rock is superb. It must be seen to be thoroughly understood."

CHARLOTTE OBSERVER.

"The shades of night were falling as we drew near our destination. The harvest moon hung in the sky as we rounded Chimney Rock. At our right was Old Baldy, under whose gigantic cliffs we insignificant mortals were creeping along. The river sang a vesper hymn, and it seemed as if nature was offering her evening prayer to the Creator. The view from Chimney Rock is glorious. * * But it is useless to describe the beauties of this region. Go and see them for yourself."

WILMINGTON REVIEW.

"It was up hill and down dale; now in the valley shut in by high hills, an anon skirting the brow of a precipice hundreds of feet above the plain beneath. The country between Rutherfordton and Asheville is beautiful, rich, prosperous and happy. * * We stood upon the summit of the rugged and picturesque Chimney and gazed abroad for sixty miles, the eye taking in almost at one glance the peaks of a hundred magnificent mountains. The view is simply sublime."

RICHMOND DISPATCH.

"There is not a missing element in this beautiful mountain scenery. There is a succession of grand views all the way for six miles. No language can depict the grandeur of the scenery all along the route. The Broad River certainly is as picturesque as the famed Swanoanaw; and larger and much more turbulent."

NORFOLK VIRGINIAN.

"At every turn of the road as we approach, the mountains unfold, panorama like displaying wild grandeur almost and yet fascinating in the extreme. Peak after peak seemingly reaching skyward after supremacy as though spurning the placidity of the valley, and defying the arts of the city builders of the plains. * * It is only a few years since man first stood upon the summit of Chimney Rock. The outlook was superb beyond description."

RICHMOND TIMES.

"Hickory Nut Gap is the most picturesque section of country to be found throughout the Appalachian chain. The Broad River, a restless crystal stream, divides the great gorge, leaving a towering, rugged height on either side. Members of our party were vieing with each other in the use of adjectives over the glorious landscape. To attempt a description of the great gray peaks, overlooking roaring cataracts and smiling vales below would be but sacrilege when once a glimpse has been obtained."

A stay at Chimney Rock will cure malarial diseases, Blood Poison, Indigestion and Dyspepsia. Without doubt Chimney Rock has the finest air and scenery to be found. Write to Geo. P. Horton, Chimney Rock, N. C. and get any further information desired.
